

How ethical is Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election?

Since Sinclair Broadcasting has access to the public airwaves without charges, the law which applies to this regulation requires public interests be served. Large companies mean large amounts of money and interests of the rich should NOT take precedence because of this camaraderie between the super rich.

We need to strengthen media ownership rules which avoid monopolizing, not weaken them.